Zumtobel Group AG: Supervisory Board appoints Dr Heiner Lang as new CEO

Dornbirn (pta019/17.08.2026/11:13 UTC+2)

The Supervisory Board of Zumtobel Group AG today appointed Dr Heiner Lang as the new Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Zumtobel Group AG. He will join the Management Board as an additional member effective 1 September 2026 and will succeed Dr Alfred Felder as Chairman of the Management Board effective 1 October 2026.

Alfred Felder will gradually hand over his responsibilities to Heiner Lang by the end of 2026. He will subsequently continue to support the company in an advisory capacity to ensure continuity.

Heiner Lang holds a doctorate in engineering and has many years of experience in specialist and management roles with international industrial companies. Most recently, from January 2021, he was responsible for the operating business as Managing Director and CEO of WAGO; prior to that, he was a member of the Management Board of Bosch Rexroth AG. With his appointment, the Zumtobel Group is set to benefit from this experience as it continues to advance its growth strategy.

"I am very pleased that the Supervisory Board today appointed Dr Heiner Lang as CEO of Zumtobel Group AG and that he has accepted the appointment. With Heiner Lang, we are gaining an experienced manager from the electrical and mechanical engineering sector who will provide fresh impetus and further strengthen the company at a decisive stage. At the same time, the Supervisory Board already expresses its thanks to Dr Alfred Felder for the trusted collaboration: Over the past ten years as a member of the Management Board of the Zumtobel Group, including eight years as Chairman of the Management Board, he has significantly shaped the company's strategic development. We wish him all the best for the transition period and for his future," said Karin Zumtobel-Chammah, Chairwoman of the Supervisory Board of Zumtobel Group AG.
